PRESS RELEASE

Gin & Tonic* a great ‘cocktail’ at The White Horse

Doing Britain Properly... that’s how Gordon’s Gin portray 7 small hotels throughout the UK in their new promotional brochure and on their website www.gordons-travel.co.uk

The White Horse at Brancaster Staithe www.whitehorsebrancaster.co.uk is one of the hotels featured in their brochure and is matched as a place to enjoy a gin cocktail and also enjoy the freshest seafood.

The recipe for a Gordon’s Cranberry Twist is the cocktail promoted alongside details of visiting The White Horse. Gordon’s were helped to pick the 7 stunning locations by Alastair Sawday, Britain’s unofficial travel connoisseur. He was asked to suggest some of the most inspiring places to enjoy a ‘Gordon’s.’

Cliff Nye owner said ‘we are delighted to be recognised by Gordon’s in their promotional brochure. We have always known that we are situated in a stunning location, the most picturesque coastal setting along the north Norfolk coast by far. Our customers are already trying the new cocktail recipe gin which our bar staff are thrilled to be serving in the bar.’
